STAFF CONTACT: Nick Norris, Planning Director, nick.norris@slcgov.com 801-535-6173

DOCUMENT TYPE: Ordinance

RECOMMENDATION: That the City Council review the recommendation from the Planning Commission and the Planning Division and consider adopting an ordinance that supports the zoning changes to implement the Downtown Plan. The Planning Commission recommended not adopting the proposal or a modified proposal, while the Planning Division is recommending adopting the proposal.

BUDGET IMPACT: None

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION: This proposal was initiated by Mayor Erin Mendenhall in response to SB 272 Capitol City Revitalization Act which was adopted by the Utah Legislature earlier this year. SB 272 established a process for creating a “project area” to support the development of an entertainment district around a stadium that is home to a professional sports franchise. One of the requirements of the act is that the zoning to support the project area be in place by September 1, 2024. The proposed zoning changes are intended to satisfy the deadline in State Code and expand the development potential within the D4 Secondary Central Business Zoning District.

D-4 PROPOSED CHANGES

The proposed text amendments include the following general changes to the D4 Secondary Central Business District:

- Modify the maximum height allowed through design review from 125 feet to 600 feet.
- Modifying the required front and corner yard setback requirements are changing to clarify that buildings with plazas and other similar public spaces are allowed to exceed the maximum setback.
- Change the table of allowed uses for the D4 zoning district would change as follows:
 - Stadiums change from a conditional use to a permitted use.
 - Commercial parking would be changed from a conditional use to a permitted use. (A current requirement prohibiting the demolition of a building for principal use parking on the property would remain.)
- Expand the existing sign overlay that applies to the Delta Center to extended to the blocks that contain the Salt Palace. This allows more flexibility for signs related to the entertainment venues within the overlay and allows modifications to signs through the design review process for buildings that are subject to design review.
 - The Planning Commission recently reviewed a proposed sign overlay for the Salt Palace (PLNPCM2023-00154). That proposal is like the existing arena sign overlay and would allow additional sign types and larger signs. The Planning Commission recommended adoption of that proposal with modifications that included removing the land where the Utah Museum of Contemporary Art and Abravanel Hall from the sign overlay and recommending limitations on illuminated signs. The council has not yet discussed the Salt Palace sign overlay. The proposal associated with the Sports, Entertainment, Culture, and Convention District would extend the sign overlay that applies to the arena to the Salt Palace blocks, resulting in one overlay instead of two. The council may want to consider both of those proposals at the same time or extend the sign overlay to only one block directly east of the Delta Center.
 - The D1 and D4 zones currently have the same base sign regulations. The arena overlay mostly increases the size of the allowed signs. Digital signs are already allowed within the overlay and within the base sign regulations.

The details of the proposed text changes can be found in the attached ordinance.

THE PLANNING COMMISSION'S RECOMMENDATIONS

The Planning Division recommended that the Planning Commission adopt the proposed amendments. The staff report presented to the commission identified several options that the commission may consider for amending the proposal. The Planning Commission, however, recommended that the council not adopt the proposal. The Commission did not offer modifications to the proposal for consideration, but did recommend that the City Council consider:

- Maintaining Abravanel Hall in its current location and current form and allocating funds for its renovation.
- A buffer be applied to the Japanese Church of Christ and adjacent garden and the Buddhist Temple to avoid impacting historic buildings.
- That the City Council require a community benefit.

The motion passed unanimously. The reasons cited include the proposal not complying with the Downtown Plan or the purpose statement of the D4 zoning district and that the process was moving too quickly.

PUBLIC PROCESS: This proposal included an online open house, an in-person open house, and a public hearing with the Planning Commission. A mailed notice was sent to all property owners and known occupants of each building and dwelling unit within the D4 zoning district, to all owners and occupants within 300 feet of the boundary of the D4 zoning district, and the Planning Division email list. The public hearing was also posted on the Utah Public Notice website and the Planning Commission website. In addition, notice was also sent to the Downtown and Capitol Hill Community Councils.

Due to the September 1, 2024 deadline, the city utilized City Zoning Code section 21A.10.015.B.4 which allows for an exemption from the 45-day public input period under certain circumstances. This proposal utilized exemption a.(1) of 21A.10.015.B.4 which authorizes code amendments that are subject to an adoption deadline or action date set forth in legislation adopted by the Utah Legislature. The exemption utilized allowed the commission to make a recommendation within the required 45-day notification period. The notification period started on April 29th when all required notice of the 45-day notice period was mailed. The 45-day period ended on June 14, 2024. The Planning Commission made a recommendation on June 11, 2024.

A summary of the public engagement, along with all written public comment received through noon on June 11, 2024 can be found in the Planning Commission staff report. Two email comments were received after noon on June 11, 2024. Those comments were read into the record of the Planning Commission.

MEMORANDUM

PLANNING DIVISION
DEPARTMENT of COMMUNITY and NEIGHBORHOODS

To: Mayor Erin Mendenhall

Cc: Rachel Otto, Chief of Staff; Jill Remington Love, Chief Administrative Officer; Blake Thomas, Department of Community and Neighborhoods Director; Michaela Oktay, Deputy Planning Director; Katherine Lewis, City Attorney.

From: Nick Norris, Planning Director

Date: April 18, 2024

Re: Initiation of a zoning text amendment to modify zoning regulation in conjunction with SB 272 Capital City Revitalization Zone.

The Planning Division is requesting that you initiate a zoning text amendment to ensure that zoning to support the Capital City Revitalization Zone bill adopted by the Utah Legislature can be adopted prior to the deadline in SB 272 of September 1, 2024. The Planning Division is required to work with a "project participant" as defined in SB 272 to develop a land use plan and ensure that the zoning is in place to support the plan. The anticipated code changes that may be proposed include:

- Clarify and potentially increase the allowed building heights within the proposed project area. The project area is to be determined and may include multiple zoning districts;
- Signage within the proposed project area;
- Clarify that any additions to the existing arena are not required to go through a new conditional use process;
- Modifications to the allowed land uses and use specific zoning regulations necessary to support an entertainment district within the proposed project area; and
- Additional modifications that may create barriers to implementing the purpose and goals of the Capital City Revitalization Act may also be modified as they are identified.

The typical public process for zoning changes includes a 45-day public input period. However, due to the deadline being less than six months away, the Planning Division may utilize Zoning Ordinance section 21A.10.015.B.4 which provides exemptions from the 45-day early notification period when a state code requires a decision within a specific deadline. Public input is still accepted if this action is taken, however a public hearing and recommendation from the Planning Commission may occur within the 45-day period.

This memo includes a signature block to initiate the petition if that is the decided course of action. If the decided course of action is to not initiate the application, the signature block can remain blank. Please notify the Planning Division when the memo is signed or if the decision is made not to initiate the petition.

Please contact me at 801-535-6173 or nick.norris@slcgov.com if you have any questions. Thank you.

Concurrence to initiate the zoning text amendment petition as noted above.

Dear Mr. Norris and Planning Commissioners,

As a volunteer for Crossroads Urban Center, I am writing to support comments Crossroads submitted for your meeting tonight, and to add a couple of my own. I have also attached for your information a letter I submitted to the City Council for their meeting on May 21.

I think it wise for the Commission to postpone any action on the proposed rezone downtown until the decisions are made whether or not to create a Community Reinvestment Area or a Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone for downtown redevelopment, as well as to await more information about the projects envisioned and the Community Benefits Agreements sought. There is enough time under SB 272 to allow for a more informed and robust public review process, and these decisions could have a significant influence upon the direction and financing options for any redevelopment.

I also wish to state my personal objection to the proposed heliport, which I think is unnecessary and would add too much noise pollution downtown. Additionally, I would caution against a too-liberal allowance of light-polluting and obnoxious, invasive electric signage.

Thank you for your consideration of these comments.

Respectfully,

Steve Erickson

Dear Mayor Mendenhall, City Council Members, and Planning Commissioners:

We have been pleased by recent media reports stating that Salt Lake City elected officials are negotiating with Smith Entertainment Group to obtain significant community benefits for all city residents in the proposed Delta Center tax and redevelopment plan. We are particularly pleased to read that there are negotiations underway to include affordable housing in this major development.

Today we ask city leaders to postpone all votes on zoning changes or tax increases in support of the tax and redevelopment plan until the details about housing and other community benefits are finalized and made available to the public. A delay of days or weeks to finalize these kinds of details can only improve the final outcome.

We also reiterate the position that we took on May 17, 2024, that ten percent of the units within the proposed redevelopment should be affordable to households earning less than $30,000 per year and that an additional ten percent be affordable to households earning less than $60,000 per year.

Caution: This is an external email. Please be cautious when clicking links or opening attachments.

Please consider the “livability” of mostly high-end housing encroached on by height (expanded restrictions) Jumbotron (bright lights and noise)
Heliport (extreme noise and intrusive disruption at random hours. Not to mention crowd, traffic/parking complications. Maybe too much indulgence for a livable and vibrant downtown? Would backers want to tolerate these intrusions where they live? Please convey these concerns since the meeting announced for tonight will not include a discussion of this proposed plan. I called several entities to confirm this.
