COMMENTS TO THE CITY COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE SALT LAKE CITY COUNCIL

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 2020

Kayla McKinney, Katy Rox, Kianee DeJesus, Megan Young, Edward Hannan, Kev Nemelka, Ashlyn Anderson, Jennifer Nielsen, Alana Burman, Mackenzie Bledsoe, Katheryn Van Sleen, Chris Sanger, and Emily Williams expressed concerns and were opposed to the recently enacted curfew. Comments included: used as a weapon against peaceful protesters, rooted in racism/classism, notification of the curfew was not accessible to many people of color/only provided in English, used to amplify white fear, used to silence the voices that were protesting, an act of violence for people of color, used to avoid addressing police brutality, implemented with nearly no notice, direct attack on rights/moral obligation to free speech, unconstitutional, and undermining first amendment rights.

7:58:55 PM Bailey Roberts spoke about the recent protests and said she was disappointed with Salt Lake City and University of Utah Police Department's behavior, including the handling of the death of Lauren (McClusky), and believed the City had a duty to be involved with global events as well as the City.

8:02:17 PM Ashleigh Hamilton spoke about the current protests and said she did not understand why City leaders were not demanding that Police/National Guard be allies to the protesters. She said they should be protecting the protesters instead of preparing for the public to dismantle things.

8:18:41 PM Simone Longo called for the firing of Police Chief, Mike Brown. He said during a recent interview, Mr. Brown did not express understanding about the protests. He said someone who could make meaningful change in the Police department should take his place.

8:21:26 PM Stephanie Schubert inquired what the Council was doing to stand for black lives. She said she was disappointed with the neutrality of some Council members and noted the disparity of Police action between the black lives matter protests and the Coronavirus protests.

9:26:44 PM George Chapman urged the Council to re-evaluate the Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) ordinance as it appeared to be increasing housing costs. He said the City Attorney should evaluate if the Council (as RDA Board) could have inadvertently made an illegally contracted rezone.

9:26:33 PM Ann Charles spoke about the accessibility of the currently held Webex Council meetings and said she had difficulty accessing the meeting and asked the Council to find better/easier ways for citizen participation.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 2020

10:12:48 PM Richard Holman spoke about the Mayor recognizing inequities between the Westside and other parts of the City and inquired where the inequities were defined, and where in the budget were the resources to address the inequities quantified. He said the Westside Coalition requested the Mayor/Council consider funding for Planning, Zoning, and other relative City departments to provide training and resources to Community Councils to review/discuss/analyze/comment on their respective proposals.

10:39:02 PM Kelsey Harrison said the Webex platform was a generally inaccessible platform and a roadblock to participate in meetings.

10:47:00 PM Lou McKee said she was appalled by the behavior of the current Administration (support for the corporate elite/developers at the expense of persons of color/unsheltered individuals). She spoke of experiencing police brutality daily while living in the Ballpark District and said community-led economic development on the Westside was needed to prevent gentrification.

11:28:51 PM Fota Rassmusen spoke about feeling discouraged regarding the conversations with Police representatives during the Work Session meeting and said it seemed unprepared. She said she was concerned groupthink could be occurring within the Police Department.

QUESTIONS TO THE MAYOR FROM THE CITY COUNCIL
