2. Comments to the City Council. (Comments are taken on any item not scheduled for a public hearing, as well as on any other City business. Comments are limited to two minutes.)

Minutes:

Councilmember Fowler outlined the public meeting rules and decorum.

Tyler Slack said he worked in Salt Lake City for 20 years and spoke about the unsheltered population being moved from place to place. He urged the Council to find better solutions to prevent further trauma and help save lives.

Jen Colby said she opposed amending the master plan and zoning map on 900 East/200 South/Lincoln Street. She said rezoning was harmful to long-term affordability and was not necessary for new development in the area.

Rich Wilcox said he opposed amending the master plan and zoning map on 900 East/200 South/Lincoln Street. He said the two-year process had been stressful for residents and nothing had changed since the Planning Commission's negative recommendation last year.

Cindy Cromer expressed disagreement with the rezoning map on 900 East/200 South/Lincoln Street. and said more harm would come to the community such as inadvertently increasing the cost of housing.

Keenan Wells expressed disagreement with the rezoning map on 900 East/200 South/Lincoln Street and commented on the disregard of owners to their tenants by attempting to evict/evicting tenants during the pandemic.

Kseniya Kniazeva, Executive Director of Nomad Alliance, thanked Council Members Fowler and Wharton for their interest and involvement with the Nomad supply drive and requested further cooperation to find permanent solutions to prevent suffering.

MINUTES OF THE SALT LAKE CITY COUNCIL
Tuesday, February 16, 2021

George Chapman commented on the parking proposal (agenda item G-3) public hearing date and asked the Council to give the public more time before holding the hearing.

E. NEW BUSINESS:

1. Ordinance: Building Inspections for Modular or Factory-Built Structures

The Council will consider adopting an ordinance amending Sections 18.08.040 and 18.32.020 of the Salt Lake City Code to allow off-site inspection of “modular” or “factory-built” structures. These types of homes may be used either as accessory dwelling units (ADUs) on existing residential properties or as stand-alone units on a larger site. Modular homes are built in factories and then delivered to the site for “installation,” which can result in lower costs per unit compared to traditional, on-site construction. The proposed ordinance would provide a process for permitting, inspecting, and approving these buildings.

G. CONSENT:

1. Ordinance: Rezone at approximately 706 to 740 West 900 South and 710 to 739 West Genesee Avenue

The Council will set the date of Tuesday, March 2, 2021 at 7 p.m. to accept public comment and consider adopting an ordinance that would rezone properties at 706 to 740 West 900 South and 710 to 739 West Genesee Avenue, including portions of two alleys, from M-1 (Light Manufacturing) to R-MU (Residential Mixed Use). The applicant intends to develop the remaining portion of the site with multi-family residential housing that is not currently permitted under the existing zoning designation. The developer has not proposed a specific development plan as part of the rezone application. The applicant also intends to renovate two vacant commercial buildings on the site for commercial uses. Consideration may be given to rezoning the property to another zoning district with similar characteristics. Other sections of Title 21A – Zoning may also be amended as part of this petition.
