

Annual Emergency Management Briefing

Salt Lake City Council
January 2022

Prepare • Respond • Impact

Overview

- Accomplishments & Goals
- Activation Levels & Notifications
- What is the EOC?
- Divisional Structure
- COOP
- Questions

Accomplishments & Goals

EM transitioned to SLCFD in April 2021.

Increased staff from 5 to 9 FTE (FTB to CAN/Housing Stability)	✓
Met with leadership from all City Departments to discuss transition	✓
Create 24/7 on call line staffed by EM personnel (P: 801-790-4466)	✓
Establish partnership with County, State, and Federal agencies	✓
Maximizing current PSB office space to accommodate increased staff	In progress
Modifying City emergency notification system (Rave Mobile Safety)	In progress
Coordinating with all City Departments to create or update COOP	In progress
Joint venture with Sustainability to implement new Community Resilience program	In progress
Implementing new Employee Preparedness apps (guidebook & SLCImOK)	In progress

Activation Levels & Notifications

LEVEL 1	Highest level of activation Significant community disruption caused by a disaster or event	You will be notified
LEVEL 2	Significant level of activation Widespread community concern or community protective actions need to be addressed	You will be notified
LEVEL 3	Lowest level of activation There may be extraordinary public concern	You may be notified
LEVEL 4	No activation Monitoring and information gathering	No notifications
LEVEL 5	Normal day-to-day operations	No notifications

What is the EOC?

The EOC is a resource intended to provide additional support to Incident Command during an event. The EOC and its staff are responsible for strategic overview of an event.

The EOC and staff do not replace Incident Command.

EOC Structure

Policy Group

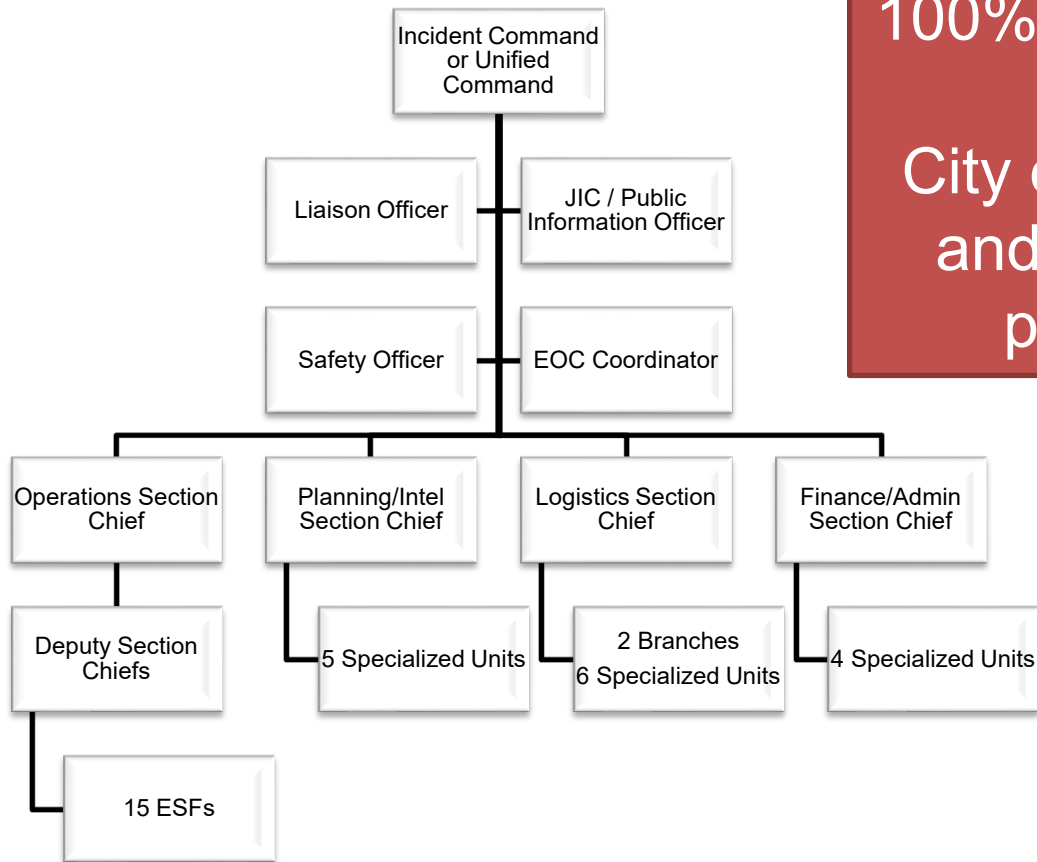

Emergency
Operations /
Coordination Center

Joint Information
Center

EOC Structure

Staffing the EOC requires 100% engagement from all City departments and necessary personnel

EOC Structure

Operations
Section

Planning and Intel
Section

Logistics
Section

Finance and Admin
Section

COOP

Continuity of Operations Plans (COOP)

All City departments are required to file their COOP with Emergency Management and evaluate it annually. In 2021, EM staff are coordinating with all departments to ensure that COOPs are up to date and assisting those departments who need to build their COOP.

Questions

